BASED IN

Vienna, Austria

LANGUAGES

German · English

Christoph Tilley was born into an artists‘ family growing up basically with a camera in his hands. His mom was a photographer, so he got to know the basics of lighting and compositing by just being around her all the time while she was working.

Keeping his interest high for nice and modern imagery, he loves to shoot commercials and sophisticated online-content.

Christoph is based in Vienna, where he runs a production company himself, he loves to work international for production all over the world.
