LANGUAGES

German · English · Russian

Born in 1980 in Herdecke, near Bochum, Marian always dreamed of being in front of the camera. The desire to act in films brought him to the renowned Freiburg Acting School, where his career as an actor began. After successful performances at the theater in Zurich, he moved to Berlin and played several leading roles in television and feature films.

In addition to his career in front of the camera, he cast countless roles himself as a casting director, which enabled him to intensify his work with actors and at the same time develop his directing skills. Through his experience as an actor, he is able to think himself into roles and lead his cast with his intuition.

In addition to countless roles in front of the camera, Marian has now directed for well-known clients such as Mercedes-Benz, Eon, Deutsche Bahn, BVG, REWE, and many more.

Marian lives in Berlin, loves comedy, entertaining movies and yes, he was seen in "The Queen's Gambit" :)
